- The MOTW in round 11 of the EHF Champions League Women involves the two teams that won the top European club competitions last season: Vipers Kristiansand lifted the CL trophy; SG BBM Bietigheim triumphed in the EHF European League Women.

- Vipers have a negative head-to-head record against Bietigheim since their 32:30 defeat in the reverse fixture in Germany last October.

- After beating Vipers, however, Bietigheim only won the next match before slumping into a five-game winless streak, with four defeats and a draw.

- Vipers gained nine points from their last six matches and rank second in group A with 15 points; Bietigheim are in fourth place with 10 points.

- Six Vipers players competed at the Women's EHF EURO 2022, including Norwegian gold medallists Katrine Lunde and Sunniva Andersen.

- Bietigheim had eight players competing at the EHF EURO, including Danish silver medallist Trine Østergaard, who joins CSM Bucuresti next season.

- Two line players from Spain's EHF EURO squad meet in this MOTW: Vipers' Lysa Tchaptchet and Bietigheim's Kaba Gassama.

- Both teams include a Czech international: Vipers have Jana Knedlikova and Bietigheim have Veronika Mala; Vipers' other Czech international, Markéta Jeřábková, is out for the MOTW due to a broken nose.

- Vipers line player Hanna Yttereng played for Bietigheim from 2014-17; the defence specialist will not appear in Saturday's MOTW as she is pregnant.

- In the 2016/17 season, Yttereng and Bietigheim lost the EHF Cup final against Rostov-Don, where current Vipers goalkeeper Katrine Lunde was playing.

- Katrine Lunde won six CL titles with three different clubs: Viborg HK, Györi Audi ETO KC, and Vipers.

- Vipers have played at the EHF FINAL4 three times and they won it twice: in 2021 and 2022; no German club so far has made it to EHF FINAL4, or even to any semi-final since the start of the CL in 1993/94.

- Bietigheim coach Markus Gaugisch took over as German national team coach last year; he will step down from his role in Bietigheim after this season.

- Injury report – Vipers: Tonje Refnes (ankle), Tuva Høve (hamstring), Markéta Jeřábková (broken nose), Marta Tomac, Hanna Yttereng and Vilde Jonassen (all on maternity leave); Bietigheim: Danick Snelder and Antje Döll (both knee injury).
