- Coming into Sunday's Match of the Week, IK Sävehof are ranked sixth with two points from six matches in DELO EHF Champions League 2021/22 group B, while Metz Handball are second with eight points from five matches.

- The postponed round 1 match between Metz and CSKA has been rescheduled for next Wednesday.

- The only defeat for Metz so far came in round 5, when they lost 33:29 at home to Györi Audi ETO KC.

- The MOTW is the fifth match between Sävehof and Metz in the CL; they each won two of their previous duels.

- None of the 31 players involved in the last encounter between Sävehof and Metz, in March 2015, is still with the team: 13 players have meanwhile retired; 18 others are still playing but for a different club.

- Sävehof's two wins against Metz are their only wins in 12 CL matches in total against French opponents; however, Metz have won five of their eight CL matches against Swedish teams.

- Sävehof have an almost all-Swedish squad, with Danish duo Laura Jensen and Trine Mortensen and Dutch line player Tamara Haggerty the only exceptions.

- Metz also have a Danish player in their squad: right back Louise Burgaard; Metz also have got players from France, Brazil, Croatia, and Ukraine.

- Sävehof left back Jamina Roberts is the third-best scorer this CL season with 42 goals.

- Roberts has scored 10 goals in one game twice: against Krim Mercator Ljubljana and Odense Håndbold.

- Méline Nocandy is Metz's best scorer with 30 goals, followed by new arrival Bruna De Paula with 22.

- De Paula was MVP of the inaugural EHF Finals 2021, where she led Nantes to the EHF European League title.

- Roberts, Nocandy and Metz left wing Chloé Valentini all played in the semi-final between France and Sweden at the Tokyo Olympics last August; France won that match 29:27 and went on to win their first gold medal.

- Sävehof play their 12th CL season, Metz their 23rd.

- Sävehof are trying to make it to the CL knockout phase for the first time in the club's history.

- Metz were the first team from France to reach a CL semi-final by qualifying for the DELO EHF FINAL4 2019.

- Injury report: Sävehof – Angelica Wallén; Metz – Orlane Kanor, Emma Jacques.
