Domestic league

Prva liga

Buducnost will join the Montenegrin national championship only for the final phase, together with the three best teams from the regular 2020/21 season.

Buducnost have won the national championship each year since its inauguration in 2006/07, except for 2019/20 when the season was not played to a finish.

- Odense (with 13 points) have qualified for the play-offs, Buducnost (eight) are not formally through yet.
- The Dutch duo of goalkeeper Tess Wester and centre back Nycke Groot will leave Odense after the season; Wester has yet to announce her new club, Groot retires.
- The number of Dutch players at Odense will still increase next season, as Dione Housheer, Kelly Vollebregt and Bo van Wetering are set to join the club.
- Both goalkeepers have won a world title: Buducnost's Barbara Arenhart with Brazil in 2013 and Odense's Tess Wester with Netherlands in 2019.
- French international Allison Pineau is back for Buducnost after she missed EHF EURO 2020 with a nose injury, but Serb international Andrea Lekic is still out after tearing her Achilles tendon at the EHF EURO.
- Both coaches are also working with a national team: Buducnost's Bojana Popovic is assistant coach at Montenegro, Odense's Ulrik Kirkely is in charge at Japan.
- Popovic replaced Dragan Adzic as Buducnost head coach just before EHF EURO 2020 in December.
- Buducnost's Jovanka Radicevic was top scorer of the shortened CL 2019/20 season with 97 goals.
- Lois Abbingh is the leading scorer for Odense this CL season with 50 goals; Andrea Lekic and Allison Pineau have both netted 41 times for Buducnost.
- Odense and Viborg HK went top of the Danish league after previous leaders Team Esbjerg lost on Wednesday.
