- Both teams also met in the DELO EHF Champions League last Sunday, playing to a 21:21 draw in Moscow; Tjaša Stanko (seven for Krim Mercator Ljubljana) and Sara Ristovska (five for CSKA) were the leading scorers.

- Stanko is Krim's best scorer so far this season, with 38 goals; Ana Gros with 29, and Elena Mikhaylichenko and Karina Sabirova both with 28 lead for CSKA.

- Stanko and Gros were teammates at Metz Handball.

- Gros scored 12 times and CSKA defeated Metz 32:24 in France on Wednesday in a rescheduled round 1 match.

- Gros is a Slovenian right back, who was born in Ljubljana and played for Krim for one season, in 2009/10.

- Macedonian-born Ristovska will face former Vardar teammates and current Krim players Allison Pineau, Andrea Lekic and Dragana Cvijic.

- Krim are ranked seventh in group B with three points; CSKA are third with nine points.

- Romanian coach Florentin Pera is at the helm at CSKA since this season, replacing Olga Akopyan, who took over from Danish coach Jan Leslie in early 2021.

- After four defeats in their first five CL matches, Krim changed their coach from Uros Bregar to Ukrainian-born Nataliya Derepasko; Bregar, who is leading the Serbian national team, had been Krim coach for five years.

- Derepasko was part of Krim's team that won the CL twice, in 2001 and 2003.

- CSKA's former assistant coach and current Russian national team coach Lyudmila Bodniyeva played at Krim for 10 years, between 2003 and 2013.

- Krim play their 27th CL season; CSKA their second.

- CSKA made it all the way to the DELO EHF FINAL4 in their debut CL season 2020/21, and finished fourth.

- Seven CSKA players were part of the Russian team that won silver at the Tokyo Olympics; one of them, Darya Dmitrieva, is currently taking a break from the sport.

- Krim players Allison Pineau and Océane Sercien-Ugulin were part of the French team that beat Russia in the Olympic final in Tokyo in August.

- Pineau and another new arrival at Krim this season, Andrea Lekic, both were IHF World Players of the Year.

- Injury report: Krim – Sanja Radosavljević, Dragana Cvijic (recovering from long-term injuries); CSKA – Polina Vedekhina (post-surgery recovery), Darya Dmitrieva.
